

Newsletter

Welcome to our Spring newsletter with news and views from across OCI, the Investment Adviser Oakley Capital and the underlying portfolio companies.

In this edition: Oakley's recent deals in the Technology and Business Services sectors; Oakley Capital's Steven Tredget speaks to WealthBriefing on the outlook for private markets; plus: the Oakley team take on their third Miles in March challenge raising money for Doctors Without Borders and Impetus.

You can subscribe to our newsletters by visiting our website. And you can follow us on LinkedIn.

New Deals

Creating a cybersecurity leader in Europe: just months after investing in French cybersecurity champion I-TRACING, Oakley backs UK peer Bridewell, laying the foundations for a strategic partnership and a European cybersecurity one-stop services powerhouse. Learn more about the transaction.

Insurance roll-up: Germany's insurance distribution market remains highly fragmented. Read about Oakley's investment in Konzept & Marketing, a leading, independent Managing General Agent ("MGA") and consolidation play in the German, personal non-life insurance market.

See news & insights for all our deal news

News and Insights from across Oakley

Case study: Transforming vLex

vLex is helping to shape the future of law. The US-based company has built the world's largest legal subscriber base and a library with more than one billion legal documents. Find out how Oakley has supported vLex's transformation into a globally-focused, legaltech innovator here.

Investors Turn More Discerning Over Private Markets, Sector Hasn't Peaked

In April Oakley partner, Steven Tredget spoke to WealthBriefing on the outlook for private markets, their attractiveness amidst the backdrop of geopolitical uncertainty and how OCI offers access to these private markets.

Third party recognition

OCI was pleased to receive recognition from a number of awarding bodies in 2024 for its Digital Report. Awards included, 'Best Report and Accounts – Alternative' at the AIC Shareholder Communication Awards 2024 and 'Best innovation in IR – Mid Cap award' at the Investor Relations Society Best Practice Awards 2024.

Fundraising

€4.5bn
Fundraise

100%
Re-uprate

€2.2bn
Of new capital

Thanks to the continued support of investors including OCI, Oakley raised €4.5bn for its flagship Fund VI, hitting its hard cap six months after the fundraise was launched in September 2024.

Fund VI benefitted from strong backing from existing investors across the Oakley platform and also welcomed €2.2 billion of new institutional capital from across the globe.

Read the full story

Rebecca Gibson on Oakley's Outlook: fresh after the close of Fund VI, Oakley Capital Partner Rebecca Gibson talks Origination, deal pipeline and the growth of the Oakley platform. Watch the full interview here.

Out and about with Oakley Capital

Miles in March Fundraising Challenge

For the third year running #TeamOakley took on the Miles in March Fundraising Challenge, aiming to run, cycle, walk and ski a combined 22,500km. The team beat the target, raising money for Impetus, a charity set up by the PE industry to support charities that improve the lives of children from disadvantaged backgrounds, and Doctors Without Borders which provides humanitarian medical care in conflict zones.

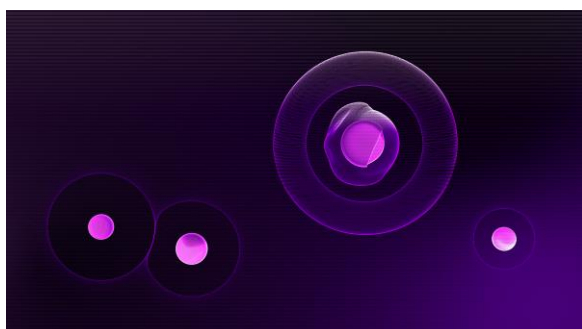

International Women's Day

Many thanks to Helen Pattinson, CEO of War Child, an Oakley partner charity, for joining our industry networking event to lead a panel discussion on the important work War Child are doing to support and protect women and girls in war zones across the world.

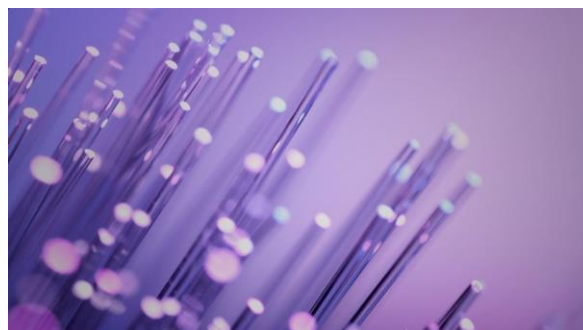

Boosting gender diversity and inclusion across the PE industry is an important goal for Oakley. We also hosted a series of events across the Firm including Spring drinks, team breakfasts and tuning into the BVCA's webinar panel with Oakley Partner and Level 20 chair, Rebecca Gibson on the UK's latest Diversity report.

Latest Reporting

View OCI's Annual Report for 2024

View OCI's latest factsheet as at 31 March 2025

Follow Us

Copyright © 2024 Oakley Capital Limited